Javadekar Hails Performance of IIFM, Bhopal in India Rankings 2016; Says All Institutes Under the Ministry will be Revamped to Enhance Performance

“I am very happy and congratulate the Director Dr Giridhar Kinhal and his team at Indian Institute of Forest Management (IIFM), Bhopal which has been ranked at Number 8 amongst the management institutions in the India Rankings 2016 released by Ministry of Human Resource Development, Government of India”, Minister of State (Independent Charge) of Environment, Forest and Climate Change, Shri Prakash Javadekar said here today.

The IIFM, Bhopal has done extremely well on all parameters related to “Graduation Outcome”, “Outreach and Inclusivity” and “Perception” among the general public. The IIFM, Bhopal is the only Management Institute of central ministries, other than Ministry of HRD, that figures in the top 10 management institutions in the country.

Shri Javadekar said that IIFM, Bhopal, has achieved real success through their programmes. Earlier performance of institutions were based on only placements, but now Ministry of Human Resource Development has developed a comprehensive evaluation system with five main parameters and 17 sub-parameters, major parameters being Faculty Student Ratio; Metric for Faculty with Ph.D and Experience; Metric for Library, Studio & Laboratory Facilities; Metric for Sports and Extra Curricular Facilities; Research, Professional and Collaborative Performance; Combined Metric for Publications; combined Metric for Citations; Intellectual Property Right and Patents; Collaborative Publications and Patents; Footprint of Projects and Professional Practice, etc.

The Minister said that there are many other research and training institutes under the Ministry of Environment, Forest and Climate Change. “We are determined to improve the quality and performance of all these institutes for which we are undertaking academic, research and management audit of all the institutes under the Ministry”, he said.
