

Prof Amitabh Pandey
Prof Parul Rishi
Programme Directors
apandey@iifm.ac.in, 09425017945 (m)

May 07, 2019

To

Sub: Nomination invited from women Scientists for one-week DST training on “Community Resources Management” (for women scientists only) to be held at IIFM from July 15-19, 2019.

Sir / Madam,

Indian Institute of Forest Management, Bhopal, was set up by the Ministry of Environment and Forest, Government of India, in 1982 to provide high quality education in Development, Environment and Conservation & Livelihood sector. For the past nine year, as part of its endeavour to disseminate knowledge on different aspects of environment and allied domain to the scientists, it has been organizing training for scientists working in research organization/ institutions/ university in India sponsored by Department of Science and Technology, GOI, New Delhi. With Sustainable Development Goals (SDG), the understanding of changing world environment becomes important for scientists working in diverse field to develop the time relevant strategies and policies.

This year this training is scheduled from 15-19 July 2019. This training Course emphasizes updating the knowledge of community resource management, skills of resource management policies analysis and environmental leadership to facilitate active role in policy making among women scientists and decision-makers in regards to Natural Resource and Environment Management in India.

We request you to kindly nominate 2-3 women scientists (open only to women) from your organization or institution for this training. Kindly send the details in the enclosed form on or before 05th July 2019 to us. Only 25 scientists will be selected and those applying first will be given preference. This training is exclusively for government scientists working in central or state government institutions.

There is no registration fee for attending this training; this training is fully sponsored by DST, New Delhi. Only the travel cost to attend the training will have to be borne by the sponsoring organization. Kindly send the nominations at the earliest, to apandey@iifm.ac.in. or amitabhpandey67@gmail.com. and parul@iifm.ac.in

We keenly look for your active support and participation in the program.

Warm regards

(Amitabh Pandey)

Enclosed

- Training Brochure, DST application form,
- You can also download form from DST web sites